CGI Names New Senior Sales Consultant
Mark A. Walker Joins Expanding Business Development Team

MIAMI – June 5, 2007 – CGI Windows and Doors, Inc., a leading manufacturer of premium, impact-resistant windows and doors, has named Mark A. Walker to the newly created position of Senior Sales Consultant for Southwest Florida. Walker lives in Clearwater, Florida and will oversee sales activities for CGI throughout the Southwest coast of Florida including Naples, Sarasota and the Tampa area. Walker brings more than 23 years of window and door experience to CGI's senior sales team.

“Mark will be instrumental in expanding our network of dealers and growing the CGI brand in the Southwest Florida market with his expertise in the window and door industry,” said Executive Vice President Steven Dawson. “We are very pleased to bring on board an industry veteran with more than 23 years of experience to enhance our ongoing expansion efforts.”

Most recently, Walker was president of High Performance Sales and Marketing, a manufacturer's representation firm. Before that, Walker served as president of Window Source, a Florida-based replacement window retailer and Precision Group International, a window product exporter.

Walker holds a bachelor of arts degree in Chemistry and Psychology from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

About CGI

CGI has a strong reputation for offering architectural-grade impact windows and doors with unique features and high-quality construction that exceed industry standards. CGI products have been specified and installed in some of the most prestigious residential and commercial projects in South Florida, including Fisher Island. Established in 1992, the company was the first impact window and door manufacturer to offer PVB laminated glass designed exclusively to meet the Miami-Dade County impact-resistant protocols. The company has recently moved into a new 110,000 square foot facility in the Miami area.
