CGI Names Two New Senior Sales Representative
Ryan Duffield and Tony Prummel Join Expanding Sales Team

Ryan Duffield

Tony Prummel

MIAMI – June 09, 2008 – CGI Windows and Doors, Inc., a leading manufacturer of premium, impact-resistant windows and doors, has named Tony Prummel and Ryan Duffield to the newly created Senior Sales Representative positions. Prummel will oversee sales activities for CGI in Palm Beach and Broward Counties and Duffield will be responsible for Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties. Together they bring more than 20 years of window and door experience to CGI's senior sales team.

“Tony and Ryan will be instrumental in servicing our network of dealers and working closely with the builders, general contractors and other customers to effectively meet their needs,” said Steven Dawson, Executive Vice President Sales. “We are very pleased to bring on board experienced industry professionals to enhance our ongoing growth efforts.”

Prummel Attended University of Missouri in Columbia and Duffield graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Sciences degree in Biology with a minor in Chemistry from University of North Dakota in Grand Forks.

About CGI

CGI has a strong reputation for offering architectural-grade impact windows and doors with unique features and high-quality construction that exceed industry standards. CGI products have been specified and installed in some of the most prestigious residential and commercial projects in South Florida, including the Palm Beach Breakers Hotel historical restoration. Established in 1992, the company was the first impact window and door manufacturer to offer PVB laminated glass designed exclusively to meet the Miami-Dade County impact-resistant protocols.
